Summit participants will experience stunning thought leadership from CTI co-founders Karen and Henry Kimsey-House, exciting keynotes and provocative, evocative, experiential breakout sessions. CTI's 2014 Global Co-Active Summit will be an ideal opportunity to LEARN, to GROW, to CONTRIBUTE and to CONNECT.

A Summit is where powerful people come together to create new thinking. This is especially true of a CTI Summit- it's a larger expression of the special environment that is created in CTI classrooms and Co-Active gatherings around the globe. The Summit's theme is "From Me to We: We are One". This is your opportunity to be part of an important conversation - on how we move beyond the individual to the collective in order to make a positive impact in this world.
