

Kathleen Spike, CPCC, MCC

Organizational Coach

Language: English

Kathleen is deeply committed to breaking through human barriers and old thought patterns to create individual and organizational transformation. Results-oriented and progress-minded, she helps her clients to design their life and business values, self-mastery and purpose. An Olympic track and field enthusiast, a trip to the Atlanta games inspired her ultimate coaching goal – to help professionals get off their knees, clear hurdles and move constantly forward. Having owned a textiles and design business, Kathleen possesses the creative spirit of an artist and the hunger of an entrepreneur, and she passionately inspires both in those she coaches.
