Gabby Staal (1965) is an international certified Executive coach, Team coach and Leadership- & Organizational Development consultant with over 20 years of experience, both as a professional coach, trainer and facilitator and as an executive and senior manager in the financial industry (VP Level).

In 2008 he founded LeaderQuest, an NL-based company focused on Leadership- & Organizational Development. He brings value to executives, teams and organizations, using unique skills and tools (e.g. Relationship Intelligence).

He delivers several programs and workshops in Coaching, Leadership- and Organizational Development for a wide variety of (international) clients.

He has worked with managers and/or teams of e.g. ABNAMRO, Carnegie (Sweden), SAP (USA), ANWB, Tata Steel, Smurfit Kappa, The European Commission (Brussels), Volkswagen, as well as several Mid- and Medium size organizations in Profit- non-Profit and Public Sector.

Clients say about Gabby; “He is very professional, trustworthy, compassionate, warm and at the same time ‘sharp like a razor’, always striving for the best and ‘breaking the ice’ with his playfulness and humor”.

Gabby holds a Degree in Economics from the University of Amsterdam. He is certified in the Co-Active Coaching program of The Coaches Institute (CPCC™) and (being the first in NL) certified as an Organizational & Relationship Systems Coach (ORSC™) of CRR Global, both accredited programs of the International Coach Federation (ICF).

He is also certified in the Team Diagnostic Assessment™ of Teamcoaching International and in The Leadership Circle Profile™; two unique and innovative tools to measure (team)leadership performance.

Gabby has been trained in Zen Meditation and is a former president of the ICF in The Netherlands. He has an extensive (international) network of highly qualified partners.

He works fluently in Dutch and English.
