

Ron Renaud CPCC, PCC

SENIOR FACULTY MEMBER
EXECUTIVE COACH

Ron has been a CTI faculty member since 2001 and has over 15 years of coaching experience. Ron's approach to coaching is founded on enthusiasm, courage, endurance and integrity; He practices each in his own coaching and holds his clients to the same rigor in order to create breakthrough learning and growth for them. Ron has coached C-suite executives, sales executives, and professional athletes from around the world. Ron himself has a competitive streak and is both an avid runner and triathlete. He completed the Ironman Triathlon in Lake Placid, NY in 2003 and his first ultra-marathon (50 miles) in 2008. Ron is a frequent public speaker and a published author.
